

Dan Sloat
Research Intern
Fall 2017-Spring 2018

Dan Sloat is a JD/MBA candidate at the University of Oklahoma College of Law and the Price College of Business and will be a Research Intern for the Center for International Business & Human Rights during the 2017-2018 academic year. After graduation, he plans to pursue a career in international management consulting. During law school, he was elected Class President his first year, Executive Vice President of the OU Student Bar Association his second year, and founded the school's first Business Law Society.

Before law school, he served in the United States Air Force with three deployments abroad as an Air Battle Manager. In 2014, Captain Sloat volunteered as an Air Liaison Officer to the Combined Air Operations Center at Al Udeid Air Base, Qatar. His efforts to coordinate humanitarian aid for thousands of refugees fleeing ISIS forces in Syria earned him a Commendation Medal.

Dan holds a BS in Business Management from Indiana University and an MA in Economics from the University of Oklahoma. Part of his undergraduate coursework included studying international business in both Denmark and the Netherlands.
