

THE OKLAHOMA CITY CHAPTER OF THE FEDERAL BAR ASSOCIATION
HOLLOWAY SCHOLARS PROGRAM

FALL 2019

The Oklahoma City Chapter of the Federal Bar Association established the Holloway Scholars Program in 2011.

Through this Program, the Chapter provides scholarships for law students who demonstrate commitment to civility, professionalism, academic excellence and community involvement. The Chapter established the scholarship program in honor of the late William J. Holloway, Jr., Senior Judge of the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals, whose kindness, integrity and high standards of excellence guided and inspired the legal community in the Tenth Circuit for over 40 years. The scholarship recipients are known as the "Holloway Scholars."

Eligibility

Law students who have completed at least one (1) year of academic course work in a Juris Doctor program at an ABA-accredited law school within the State of Oklahoma are eligible to apply.

Selection Criteria

Scholarship recipients will be selected based on the following criteria:

- Commitment to the pursuit of a legal career in practice areas involving the federal courts
- Commitment to and actions demonstrating ethics, civility and professionalism
- Academic merit (undergraduate/graduate school/law school)
- Written and oral communication skills determined through the application and interview process
- Leadership qualities and community involvement

Holloway Scholars Program applicants should be student members of the Federal Bar Association by the date of application submission. Information on how to become a student member of the Federal Bar Association is available at <http://fedbar.org>.

Financial Award

Each recipient of the Holloway Scholarship will receive an award of at least $1,500.

Application Process

Applications will be accepted through September 6, 2019. Applicants are required to submit the following documents for consideration:

- Completed Holloway Scholars Program/Scholarship Application Form
- Resume
- Transcripts (law school/graduate school/undergraduate); Unofficial transcripts may be submitted
- Contact information for three (3) references, at least one of whom can speak to the applicant's commitment to civility, ethics and professionalism
- A written statement (no more than two (2) typewritten pages, double-spaced) describing how the applicant meets the criteria for the scholarship

All applications will be reviewed by the Holloway Scholars Selection Committee appointed by the Chapter President. Those chosen for interviews must be available on October 10, 2019. The interviews are scheduled to take place in the Oklahoma City chambers of the Honorable Jerome Holmes, Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals. The award(s) will be announced shortly thereafter, and the recipient(s) will be honored and recognized on October 24, 2019, at the annual William J. Holloway, Jr. Lecture, an event sponsored by the Oklahoma City Chapter of the Federal Bar Association and open to the public. This year the lecture will be held at the Oklahoma History Center.

About Judge William J. Holloway Jr.

William J. Holloway, Jr. was born in Hugo, Oklahoma, in 1923. He was the son of the late Governor and Mrs. William J. Holloway.

Judge Holloway's family moved to Oklahoma City in 1927, where he received his elementary education in the Oklahoma City public schools, graduating from Classen High School in 1941. He attended the University of Oklahoma for two years before World War II and for one year after serving in the United States Army, receiving his B.A. from the University in 1947. He received his LL.B. from Harvard Law School in 1950.

After being in general practice with his father and uncle in Oklahoma City, he served as an attorney in the Department of Justice in Washington, D.C., in 1951 and 1952. He then returned to general practice in Oklahoma City until his appointment by President Johnson as a United States Circuit Judge of the Tenth Circuit on September 16, 1968. He served as Chief Judge of the Tenth Circuit from September 1984 until September 1991. In 1988, Judge Holloway received the President's Award from the Oklahoma Bar Association for his twenty years of judicial service. In 1991, he received the Humanitarian Award from the Oklahoma City Region of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. In August 1991, the Oklahoma City University conferred an Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree on Judge Holloway.

Judge Holloway took senior status in 1992 but remained active on the court as a senior judge until his death on April 25, 2014. By that time, he had become the longest-serving judge in the history of the Tenth Circuit with a tenure of over forty-five years.
