COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Business Organizations

.5 Credit Hours

An overview of the types of basic business organizations and their purposes. The course will cover advantages and disadvantages of each, legal concepts relating to each, terms used in discussing them, and related legal documents that the paralegal might be expected to create. Topics include the formation and operation of a corporation, sole proprietorship, and general and limited partnership, with emphasis on the corporate entity in Oklahoma.

Contracts

1.5 Credit Hours

Contracts is the law of binding agreements. In this course, students will learn the components of an enforceable contract, exceptions to the enforcement of contracts, and remedies available upon the breach of an enforceable contract. Using an online virtual law firm, students will have the opportunity to put their new knowledge to practical use in completing assignments typically given to paralegals relating to contract law ranging from drafting a demand letter, to a legal memorandum on Contract Law and a complaint sounding in contract law.

Creditors' Rights

.5 Credit Hours

The debt collection process is discussed, including final judgments and enforcement, prejudgment remedies, statutory liens, bankruptcy, and other elements in the collection process.

Employment Law

.5 Credit Hours

This course is intended to provide the student with an understanding of current legal issues in the area of employer/employee relations, with coverage of both state and federal laws, including discrimination issues, termination issues, the Family Medical Leave Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act. Upon completion, the paralegal should be able to interview prospective clients and recognize what legal remedies will be available to them.

Family Law

.5 Credit Hours

An overview of the issues that arise in family law that include divorce and prenuptial agreements, child custody, child support, spousal support, guardianship, and adoption.

Evidence

1.5 Credit Hours

Oklahoma and Federal Rules of Evidence will be surveyed in order to familiarize students with the types of evidence which will and will not be admissible in court and objections which may be made during discovery and in pretrial orders to proposed evidence.

Insurance Law

.5 Credit Hours

Introduction to insurance law, with emphasis on Oklahoma statutes and cases. Includes recovery of damages for insurance company failure to deal fairly with the insured.

Intellectual Property

.5 Credit Hours

The nature of the rights, acquisition and enforcement of, and property and contract interests in, patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets.

Internship I

1 Credit Hour

The goal of this class is (1) to assist paralegal students in bridging the gap between the classroom and the world of law firms, corporations, public agencies, and organizations; (2) to provide the student with a meaningful, practical experience in a professional setting; (3) to assist the student in clarifying career goals and to assess readiness to enter the legal profession; and (4) and to provide the student an opportunity to refine professional skills.

Internship II

1 Credit Hour

The goal of this class is (1) to assist paralegal students in bridging the gap between the classroom and the world of law firms, corporations, public agencies, and organizations; (2) to provide the student with a meaningful, practical experience in a professional setting; (3) to assist the student in clarifying career goals and to assess readiness to enter the legal profession; and (4) and to provide the student an opportunity to refine professional skills.

Oil and Gas Law

.5 Credit Hours

Course objective is to study the basic terminology, lease forms and clauses, other forms, and theory of oil and gas law. Includes discussion of both state and federal regulatory agencies.

Trusts/Wills

.5 Credit Hours

General introduction to the law of trusts, the establishment of a trust, drafting trust forms, and transferring assets into trust. Introduction to basic law, terminology, history, and development of wills, concepts of distribution, execution, and will contests.

Workers' Compensation

.5 Credit Hours

This course will provide students with the knowledge and insight necessary to work in the area of Oklahoma workers' compensation law. Focus will be on the filing of forms, preparing medical records and reports, as well as the Workers' Compensation Court.

INSTRUCTIONS AND POLICIES

The Department of Paralegal Studies requires 23 credit hours of legal-specialty courses and a minimum of 37 credit hours of general-education courses to complete the American Bar Association-approved certificate program.

WITHDRAWAL FROM CLASS

To withdraw from class, students must contact the Department of Paralegal Studies office. NO CASH REFUNDS ARE GRANTED TO STUDENTS WHO WITHDRAW FROM A CLASS. Students who withdraw on or before the payment deadline for a class will receive 100 percent tuition credit. Students who withdraw after the payment deadline for a class and before 4 p.m. a week preceding the first scheduled class meeting or online start date will receive a 60 percent tuition credit. Students who withdraw from a class after five days preceding the first scheduled class meeting or online start date will receive no tuition credit. Tuition credits must be used within two semesters. After two semesters, the tuition credit will expire, and no cash refund will be made. The department reserves the right to make exceptions.

Students may withdraw any time prior to the last day of a class with the approval of the instructor. Students should request to withdraw before the last day of class.

An Administrative Withdrawal (A/W) is a neutral grade used to indicate that a student has been involuntarily withdrawn by the program. A student may receive an AW for disciplinary reasons, financial reasons, or failure to stay current in completing coursework. A student cannot request an AW.

ENROLLMENT POLICY

All students will enroll at oulae.populiweb.com. To receive credit for classes, the student must be admitted to study in the Department of Paralegal Studies on or before the enrollment deadline. Classes may be audited, with assignments not being evaluated and no grade recorded. Auditors pay the same tuition as students who take courses for credit. Department of Paralegal Studies courses may be accepted for credit in some degree programs at the University of Oklahoma and other institutions. Please contact those programs and institutions regarding the transfer of courses.

PAYMENT POLICY

Students must consult the class schedule to determine the payment deadline for each class. Students have two options to pay for classes: (1) payment may be made for all classes at the time of enrollment or (2) payment may be made before the payment deadline for each class. All checks, money orders, or charges must be made payable to the University of Oklahoma.

ENROLLMENT IN A CLASS IS NOT COMPLETE UNTIL TUITION IS PAID.

GRADES AND GRADED ASSIGNMENTS

Students will be notified of grades electronically once they are posted. Students who wish to receive copies of graded assignments may contact the Department of Paralegal Studies at paralegalstudies@law.ou.edu with their name, student ID number, course title and semester. Assignments will be retained in the department office, to be picked up by students, for one semester. Assignments or other materials that are not picked up will be discarded.

GRADING POLICY

A 12-point grading scale is used, in which an A+ = 12 to F = 0.

For certificate candidates, a grade of C- or better in required legal-specialty courses and a passing grade in elective legal-specialty courses must be earned to receive credit for the courses. A student who earns a grade of D+ or below in a required course must repeat the course.

To receive a passing grade in any course, the student must satisfactorily complete all assignments and the final examination. Failure to do either of these will result in a failing grade. An "I" (incomplete) is given when a student is unable to complete certain course requirements for reasons satisfactory to the instructor. If a grade of "I" is not changed within one year, it will become permanent, and the student will be required to repeat the course in order to receive credit. Students may appeal a final course grade under the department's Grade Appeal Procedure. The appeal must be submitted within 10 days of the date the final grade was posted.

GRADUATION

Certificates are conferred annually, in August, to students who have completed all requirements.

Paralegals cannot give legal advice, accept cases, set legal fees, represent clients in court, or perform any legal service without the supervision of a licensed lawyer.

REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION POLICY

The University of Oklahoma (OU) is committed to the goal of achieving equal educational opportunity and full educational participation for students with disabilities. If you have already established reasonable accommodations with the Accessibility and Disability Resource Center (ADRC), please submit your semester accommodation request through the ADRC as soon as possible and contact paralegalstudies@law.ou.edu, so that we have adequate time to arrange your approved academic accommodations.

If you have not yet established services through ADRC, but have a documented disability and require accommodations, please complete ADRC's pre-registration form to begin the registration process. ADRC facilitates the interactive process that establishes reasonable accommodations for students at OU. For more information on ADRC registration procedures, please review their Register with the ADRC web page. You may also contact them at (405)325-3852 or adrc@ou.edu, or visit www.ou.edu/adrc for more information.

Note: disabilities may include, but are not limited to, mental health, chronic health, physical, vision, hearing, learning and attention disabilities, pregnancy-related. ADRC can also support students experiencing temporary medical conditions.

University of Oklahoma Department of Paralegal Studies

LEGAL SPECIALTY COURSES

Students are required to earn 23 credit hours, including 18 credit hours of required legal specialty courses and 5 credit hours of elective legal specialty courses. 9 credits must be completed synchronously (live). The combined required and elective courses needed for program completion meet this requirement.

Students who started before Fall 2020 must complete 19 credit hours of required legal specialty courses and 4 credit hours of elective legal specialty courses. Course listings for curriculum prior to Fall 2020 can be located in Canvas orientation course.
